

SHOTS MARK CHASE OF CLOTH THIEVES

Four Robbers, Interrupted by Camden Police, Escape in Automobile LEAVE $4000 LOOT BEHIND

Four robbers who attempted to steal clothing valued at $4000 from the establishment of Capolino & Co., Broadway and Kaighn's avenue, Camden, early this morning, were compelled to desert their loot by the police, after several shots were fired. The thieves escaped.

The police believe that the men are members of a gang which has been systematically robbing shops in Philadelphia and nearby towns during the last few months. Capolino & Co. occupy a portion of the second floor of the Danmore Building. As mounted Patrolman Quinton was passing the place this morning, he noticed that a second-story window had been forced open. A close investigation showed that a window of a pool-room on the first floor at the rear of the building was also opened.

What Do You Know About Schools?
If your information is limited to reading catalogs you have a great deal to learn. Public Ledger Educational Bureau knows a lot of "inside stuff" because they sent a man around to investigate all the different schools. Get in touch with him and let him help you. The service is free and gladly rendered. Public Ledger Educational Bureau, Independence Square, Philadelphia.
